

Guild of Location Managers

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Acceptance as a member of the Guild is not automatic. All applications are vetted by the committee for approval. The decision of the committee is final.

FULL Membership is for applicants who have been working as a location manager in the UK for a minimum of three years credits.

ASSOCIATE Membership is open to those who currently have less than three years working experience in the location department. Associate status can be upgraded at a later date when an Associate meets the criteria for Full Membership.

A current CV must be enclosed with all application forms.

Full and Associate members agree to comply with the Code of Practice.

Membership ID cards are for Full and Associate members only. These are only issued once the subscription has been paid. Invoices for membership should be settled within 30 days.

Voting is only available to Full Members.

AFFILIATE Membership is available to companies or organisations which are associated with or allied to the location finding and management industry. A minimum trading period of twelve months is requested for all applicants.

SPONSORSHIP is available to all who wish to support the Guild of Location Managers and the process of filming on location.

Approved Affiliates and Sponsors are entitled to use the GLM approved LOGO as supplied by the GLM for the period of their membership only. Use of the logo must cease immediately on expiration of membership.

All members agree to accept email communication that the GLM considers relevant to its members.

The GLM ensures the privacy of its members by not selling or distributing their contact details to any third parties.*

Members agree to be listed on the website www.golm.org.uk

The GLM reserves the right to reject applications without giving reason.

The GLM will not tolerate abusive or threatening behaviour from its members.

The GLM reserves the right to cease membership without recourse or appeal.

Terms and Conditions may change at any time.

* The GLM supplies a membership list of Full and Associate members to the Screen Agencies or Film Commissions with whom they have an agreement, as listed on the reverse of the ID cards. This is for security verification purposes only.

* Members' names, mobile and email details are shared with GLM Affiliate, Kay Media only. This gives each member a free listing in the locations section of the directory.
