

The Guild of Location Managers Committee has grown from strength to strength over recent years. Although it is made up of working location managers, the members manage to give of their own time to meet and discuss the future of The Guild, plan our general meetings and keep up to date with industry news.

Our thanks go to the many venues who have kindly offered space or meeting rooms for us.

When

Where

February 2010

Four Seasons Hotel – Canary Wharf

A luxury hotel with a window seat over the River Thames.

Our thanks to Marion Ryan for facilitating use of a perfect boardroom with refreshments for our meeting and for a tour of parts of the hotel.

September 2009

London Marriott County Hall

This hotel is a Sponsor of The Guild. Once a seat of Government the hotel is situated on the South Bank with views across the River Thames. Thanks to Colleen Bonnet for use of the grand wooden panelled meeting room and for the brief tour of parts of the hotel.

August 2009

London Underground – headquarters

55 Broadway, the home of London Underground, was once the tallest building in the London. An architectural masterpiece in art deco style it made a bold statement on the skyline. Now it is dwarfed by the surrounding buildings.

Our thanks to Kate Reston, head of LU Film Office, who are Affiliates of The Guild, for use of their meeting room.

May 2009

Royal Institute of British Architects – Hawksmoor Room

This lovely light and airy room with huge windows overlooking Portland Place was a perfect venue for our committee meeting.

Thanks to Sally Warner for her assistance in setting up our meeting here.

November 2008

BAFTA – The Boardroom, Piccadilly

A good meeting was held in the Boardroom with its grand wooden table and pictures of movie greats on the wall. Thank you to Jenny Bones for enabling the hire of this room.

September 2008

BAFTA – The Gallery, Piccadilly

This glass walled break-out space provided a charming setting for our meeting. Thank you to Jenny Bones for the hire of this area.

February 2008      The Lansdowne, Primrose Hill

One of the stalwarts of the gastro-pub scene we had a jolly if rather noisy meeting in the buzzy atmosphere of the pub.

October 2007      Upper Glas, Islington

Situated in the top half of what was once a Victorian tram shed, we held our meeting in this Swedish restaurant. Kindly hosted by Anna Mosesson we enjoyed great Swedish food in a vibrant atmosphere.

March 2006      The Metropolitan, Great Western Road

This pub has function rooms upstairs, so we held our meeting in the scrubbed wooden atmosphere. Our thanks to all at the pub for use of the room.

April 2005      William IV, Harrow Road

This atmospheric pub has many rooms and alcoves, so after a noisy start in the main room we moved upstairs and continued in peace in a cosy corner with leather chairs and candle light. Thanks to all at the William IV for catering for our needs.
